Seventh Election Results Update for the November 6 General Election

LOS ANGELES – Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) Dean C. Logan announced the seventh ballot counting update for the November 6 General Election.

The update includes 51,933 ballots processed since Election Night, consisting of Vote by Mail and Provisional ballots. The total election results count is now 3,011,187 which is 57.90% of eligible Los Angeles County voters.

The estimated number of outstanding ballots left to be counted is 51,000 consisting of the following:

- Provisional ballots: 51,000

These results are subject to change throughout the Official Election Canvass period as our canvass staff process VBM envelopes and de-process precinct supplies. This estimate includes additional Vote by Mail Ballots postmarked on or before Election Day and received through Friday, November 9.

The election is tentatively scheduled to be certified on Friday, November 30 For specific results visit lavote.net and follow us on Twitter @LACountyRRCC.

*The final update on Friday will only include the portion of the remaining outstanding ballots that are verified and qualified for counting.

The mission of the Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk is to serve Los Angeles County by providing essential records management and election services in a fair, accessible and transparent manner. For more information, visit lavote.net and follow us on Twitter @LACountyRRCC.
