DEAN C. LOGAN

Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk

Dean Logan was appointed Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk for Los Angeles County, California on July 9, 2008, previously serving as the Acting Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk and as Chief Deputy.

The Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk is responsible for registering voters, maintaining voter files, administering federal, state, local and special elections and verifying initiatives, referenda and recall petitions. Los Angeles County, with more than 500 political districts and 4.1 million registered voters, is the largest and most complex county election jurisdiction in the country. The Department conducts state primary and general elections and approximately 200 city, school and special district elections each year.

The Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk also records real property documents; maintains vital records of births, deaths and marriages; issues marriage licenses; performs civil marriage ceremonies; and processes business filings and other documents. Annually, the Department records 3 million real estate documents, issues 1 million certified copies of vital records, issues 59,000 marriage licenses and processes more than 20,000 fictitious business name filings. The Department serves an estimated 3,500 customers daily.

The Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk has an annual budget of $178,572,000 with a staff of 1,130 employees.

Mr. Logan has over 20 years experience in elections administration, records management and public service. Prior to moving to Southern California, Mr. Logan served as the Director of Records, Elections and Licensing Services for King County, Washington; as State Elections Director for the Washington Secretary of State; and as the elected County Clerk and Chief Deputy County Auditor in Kitsap County, Washington.

Mr. Logan serves on the Board of Directors for the California Association of Clerks and Election Officials (CACEO) and is a member of the County Recorders' Association of California (CRAC), the National Association of County Recorders, Election Officials and Clerks (NACRC), the International Association of Clerks, Recorders, Election Officials and Treasurers (IACREOT) and the American Council of Young Political Leaders (ACYPL) Alumni Council. He also serves on the California Secretary of State's VoteCal Statewide Voter Registration System Advisory Committee and The Election Center's National Task Force on Education & Training and National Task Force on Election Reform.

In 1999, Mr. Logan was recognized by Sprint USA and the National Association of Community Leadership with its Distinguished Leadership Award. In 2007, he served as an International Election Observer in Morocco with the National Democratic Institute. He also traveled to China in 2000 on a political leadership exchange and to the former Soviet Union in 1986 as part of a citizen diplomacy delegation.

Mr. Logan holds professional certifications as an Elections and Registration Administrator through the Election Center and Auburn University and as a Professional County Official through the University of Washington. He resides in Whittier, California with his wife and two children.
