GENERAL INFORMATION

State law requires that the Board of Supervisors conduct an election to fill vacant or expired seats on the Los Angeles County Employees Retirement Association (LACERA) Board of Investments and Board of Retirement Safety Members.

LACERA is a public entity separate from the County of Los Angeles that was created to provide retirement, disability and death benefits to Los Angeles County employees.

LACERA is comprised of two managing boards, the Board of Investments and the Board of Retirement. For more information you can visit the LACERA website at http://bos.co.la.ca.us/lacera_election.htm.

The Board of Investment has nine members. The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors appoints five members, and four members are elected by the LACERA membership. Two of the elected members are General Members, one is a Safety Member, and one is a Retired Member.

The Board of Retirement is comprised of nine members and two alternate members. The Board of Supervisors appoints five members and six are elected by the LACERA membership. The six elected members are comprised of two General Members, two Retired Members, one of whom is an Alternate Member of the Board, and two Safety Members, one of whom is also an Alternate Member of the Board.

- A General Member is a person who is working at least three-quarter time as a permanent employee for the County or for an outside district, and who is earning service credit in a retirement plan.
- A Safety Member is a permanent employee of Los Angeles County working three-quarter time or more in firefighting, forestry, lifeguarding, or law enforcement (including District Attorney Investigators).
- A Retired Member is a former Los Angeles County or outside district employee who has taken either a service retirement or a disability retirement.

LACERA administrators manage the retirement funds for the County of Los Angeles. They are the largest county retirement system in the United States, serving more than 147,000 members. The LACERA membership is comprised of individuals from a diverse range of careers, age groups, and ethnicities – all contributing to the greater welfare of Los Angeles County.

NOTE: For the LACERA Election to be held on July 31, 2007 the offices of Fourth Member, Board of Investments, Seventh and Alternate Members, Board of Retirement for Safety Members are up for election.
